St. Joseph Catholic School April issue

Dear St. Joseph Families and Friends,
Wow!

Our Havana Nights Casino Night last Saturday was a tremendous event. Many of you worked tirelessly to put together such a beautiful event that benefited our school and your children. A special thank you to the parents that helped out so much, including but not limited to Jaclyn Boukarras, Brooke Juan, Yaimara Rosado, Odi Rodriguez, and Wendy Lampinen. In addition, we could not have pulled off such a wonderful event without the tireless work of the Friends of St. Joseph. Thank you to all that helped.

We look forward to next year when we will hold another fundraising event in the springtime. We are always looking for parents that are willing to help out, so keep your ears and eyes open for the upcoming opportunities to help out.

Blessings,
Mrs. Budd

Graduations

May 17 is fast approaching for Kindergarten and 8th Grade graduations. They will be here before you know it!

Family Connection for Sunday, April 29, 2018

The goal of our life of prayer is to increase our awareness that Jesus lives with us always. Prayer is more than a dialogue with God; prayer is a lifting of our minds and hearts to God so that God might dwell and act within us and through us. The pinnacle of our life of prayer is our communion with Jesus in the Eucharist. Through this sacrament, we receive Jesus himself, and he remains with us. Our life of prayer and our union with Jesus will lead us to fruitful service to others.

Place a plant in your gathering space. Invite everyone to look at the plant, noting the connection between the plant and its leaves. Talk about the integral connection between all the parts of a healthy plant. Introduce today's Gospel by saying that Jesus talked about his relationship to his disciples using this metaphor. Read today's Gospel, John 15:1-8. Talk about the ways in which we are invited to relate to Jesus as his disciples today—prayer, Scripture, the Eucharist, and so on. When we do these things, Jesus promises to remain with us and to lead us to serve others well. Pray together that we will continue to be attentive and open to Jesus as he works in our lives today. Pray together the Acts of Faith, Hope, and Love.
