St. Joseph Catholic School January 2017 issue

Dear St. Joseph Families and Friends,

Welcome back! It seems like this year is flying by, but we have many things to look forward to before the end of the school year. We have upcoming Catholic Schools week, our Reaccreditation visit in February, Lenten Renovations in March, Easter in April, and graduations in May.

Please be advised, that there are a couple recent changes to the calendar. Because of Hurricane Irma we are having school on March 16. In addition, our diocesan in-service day changed from February 6 to February 8.

We will have school Tuesday, February 6, Wednesday, February 7, and Friday, February 9.
We will not have school Monday, February 5 and Thursday, February 8.

Blessings,
Mrs. Budd

Family Connection for Sunday, January 14, 2017

In today's Gospel we learn about one of at least two family relations that appear among Jesus' first disciples. Andrew is the brother of Simon, whom Jesus renames Peter. In next week's Gospel, we will learn about the brothers James and John, the sons of Zebedee. We know from the letters of Paul and other witnesses to the early Church that it was a common occurrence for an entire household to be baptized together. From the very beginning of the Church, families helped one another to know and follow Jesus. We hope and pray that this continues to be true in our family life.

Before your family gathers, look around your house and gather some items that your family might have that remind you of your faith. Perhaps you have a cross or crucifix displayed in your home, a statue of Mary, or statues or other art depicting saints. In today's Gospel we learn about how Andrew led his brother, Simon, to Jesus. Read today's Gospel, John 1:35-42.

In our family life, we also help to lead one another to Jesus. Talk together about the items that you gathered, discussing what these items mean to you and how you might use them during the day for prayer. Pray that your family will continue to help one another grow in our faith in Jesus.
