St. Joseph Catholic School January 2017 issue

Dear St. Joseph Families and Friends,

This week is Catholic Schools week, it is an opportunity to celebrate our past and all we do currently. Catholic schools have operated as a powerful force in education, by providing rigorous, faith-based academics and formation. The Rising Tide Initiative notes that students that graduate from Catholic schools have better achievement in student assessments, better attendance, earn more money, are more civically engaged, and more likely to engage in service.

This coming week we celebrate the work that Catholic schools have done to help build our Church and our country. Thank you to all of you for your support for Catholic schools like St. Joseph.

Blessings,
Mrs. Budd

Family Connection for Sunday, January 28, 2017

The people who heard Jesus teach and saw him heal in today's Gospel were said to have been astonished and amazed by the authority of his teaching. So compelling were Jesus' words and actions that the news about him could not be contained; it spread quickly throughout all of Galilee. Two thousand years later, the news about Jesus continues to spread. We are called to participate in sharing the Good News of Jesus with others in our words and in our deeds.

Gather as a family and try to name some amazing things, events, or people. In today's Gospel we hear that the people were astonished and amazed by their experience of Jesus. Read today's Gospel, Mark 1:21-28. What did the people who saw and heard Jesus find so amazing? (In Jesus, the people heard and saw the power and authority of God at work.) People should see in our lives the power and authority of God at work. Can you name any modern examples of people in whom you have seen the power and authority of God at work? Conclude in prayer together that we will experience wonder at the work of God in our world today. Pray together the Prayer to the Holy Spirit.
