

Tiger Weekly

Joseph Catholic School January 26, 2016 Issue

Dear St. Joseph Families and Friends,

Many members of our school and community participated in the Rally in Tally to advocate for scholarships that allow families to choose the proper schools for their children. It is simply just that every family should get to choose the school that is right for their children, whether it is public, charter, or parochial. I pray for each of you everyday and hope that you will pray for me as well as we get ever closer to celebrating our Catholic schools during Catholic Schools' Week.

Blessings,
Mrs. Budd

“Jesus’ statement that no prophet is accepted in his home town reminds us that it is often difficult to hear a challenging message from those who know us best, even if it is true. Perhaps we remember and even regret this aspect of our childhood and adolescence. We may have overlooked the wisdom and guidance of our parents, while allowing the voices of others—teachers, friends, and counselors—to carry more weight, even when these people were telling us the same thing. Perhaps this developmental stage is unavoidable. Perhaps as we have matured, we have come to a new appreciation for our parents and others whose perspective and experience we once rejected. Today’s Gospel provides an opportunity to talk about and to learn from such experiences.

As you gather as a family, consider proverbs or other wise sayings that are familiar to your family (“Blood is thicker than water;” “All that glitters is not gold.”). Consider what these proverbs mean and whether you believe them to be true. Why or why not? Jesus challenges the people of Nazareth by reminding them of old sayings that seem to have a lot of truth in them. Let’s listen to this Gospel and consider what these proverbs mean. Read aloud today’s Gospel, Luke 4:21-30. Ask: What were the proverbs that Jesus quoted? (Physician, cure yourself; No prophet is accepted in his native place.) Consider the meaning of these proverbs and look for examples from your own family life that show their truth. Consider how your family might accept one another’s wisdom and guidance and not reject the prophets in your midst. Conclude by praying together the Prayer to the Holy Spirit.”
