St. Joseph Catholic School January 10, 2017

Dear St. Joseph Families and Friends,

As we begin 2017, I would like to thank each of you for your love, support, and prayer over the last year. I have much to be thankful for in regards to our partnerships with Notre Dame and Patel, collaboration with St. Joseph Church and the Friends of St. Joseph, and support from faculty, parents, and students on campus. There is so much to look forward to in 2017. We will have another class of students receive their First Communion and be Confirmed into the Catholic Church. We will graduate a new class of students from Pre-K, Kindergarten, and Eighth Grade. There will be countless opportunities to rejoice and be glad this new year and I look forward to sharing them with you.

Blessings,
Mrs. Budd

Family Connection for Sunday, January 15, 2017

“The ministry of John the Baptist prepared for and pointed to the ministry of Jesus. In a similar way, our lives are to offer testimony to who we know Jesus to be for us and for the world. Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. How does the witness of our lives give testimony to the reconciling presence of Christ?”

As a family, identify as many titles for Jesus as possible, such as Lamb of God, Son of God, Prince of Peace, and so on. Talk together about what these different titles mean and what they tell you about Jesus. Then read together today's Gospel, John 1:29-34.

Consider how John the Baptist gives testimony to who Jesus is. Talk about what people might come to know about Jesus by observing your family life. Pray together that your family life will show others that Jesus is the Son of God, the lamb who takes away the sins of the world. Pray the Lord's Prayer.”
